Washington Homebrewer of the Year

Awarded to the homebrewer who scores the most points in sanctioned WAHA competition

-

Washington Homebrewer of the Year

Matthew Hibbs – 4.41 points

First Runner-up: Kyle Durham – 2.95 points

Second Runner-up: Kris Haskins – 2.76 points

Bert Grant Competition Results

Awarded the "best of show of the BOS winners"

Winner – Kyle Durham, "Starstruck Pils" (German Pils)

2nd Place – Aaron Davis, "Breakfast Beer" (Dark Mild)

3rd Place – Tony Ochsner, "Gypsy" (Czech Premium Lager)

Honorable Mention – Nick Ladd, "Mahlab" (Wild Specialty Beer)

Golden Mash Paddle

Recognizing homebrewers who help progress the Washington Homebrewing scene

Presented to Tony Ochsner

Washington Club of the Year

Presented in Recognition of Club Brewing Skills and Contributions to the Homebrewing Community in Washington State

Brown's Point Homebrew Club