- WAHA Officers

The WAHA Officers help support the organization and execution of overhead tasks. They are made up of WAHA Club Representatives elected by the Executive Committee.

- WAHA Committee Chairs

The WAHA Committee Chairs oversee the operations of the major committees. Their projects can be found in the WAHA Projects Section.

- WAHA Club Reps

WAHA Club Representatives are responsible for acting as the liaison between the WAHA and their designated club. They report on WAHA activities and relay important messages to their memberships. They relay ideas and issues from club members and non-club members who contact them. Please feel free to contact your club representative with WAHA related issues.

- WAHA Focals

WAHA Focals help carry out various roles and tasks in order to support the WAHA missions and projects.

- Competition Organizers

The Washington Homebrewers Association aims to help Washington have the best run competitions in the country. The heart behind all of that is the Competition Organizer. These people pour their heart and souls into organizing the events that bring feedback and awards to your beers. Competition organizers are always looking for an extra hand or some feedback to help with next year's event. Here you can find the competition organizer list for the WHOTY qualifiers and other Washington homebrewing competitions.
