

WAHA Top News - July 2009

OUR WEBSITE IS UP AND RUNNING AGAIN! Thanks so much for your patience during our outage. There is a ton going on in Washington homebrewing right now and we are happy to fill you in! Here are some of the latest happenings:

- Mead and Cider Judging Clinic - July 18th
- Learn to judge meads and ciders!

- Washington Mead and Cider Cup - August 15th
- Face off with fellow Washington mead and cider makers in the WAHA's first Mead and Cider only competition

- Evergreen State Fair - August 3rd
- Participate in the 3rd WHOTY qualifier for 2009

- SB 5060 Going into Effect July 26th
- Celebrate your new rights (responsibly, please)

- Upcoming Homebrewing Celebrations and Mini-Fests (article coming shortly)
- Find out about special new events made legal by our new law

- WAHA National Homebrewers Conference Participation
- Learn about the WAHA's participating in the 2009 NHC

- Upcoming BJCP Exam - November 14th
- Get ready to take or re-take the BJCP exam

- Puget Sound Pro-Am Results
- Find out whose beers are being brewed at local breweries

- WHOTY Standings
- Who is in the lead to be the 2009 Washington Homebrewer of the Year?

WAHA Top News - July 2009

Written by Mark Emiley

Monday, 13 July 2009 17:02 - Last Updated Wednesday, 21 October 2009 20:12
