Great Summer Wrap-Up

This summer had some wonderful homebrew events. Beerstock 5060-2 was a tremendous celebration of Washington's homebrew culture and club spirit. Thanks again to the Joy's for organizing another fantastic event. The Lakewood Rotary Homebrew Festival was another great exhibition of over 100 homemade concoctions. Thanks to Brandon Horn for his tireless work on the festival. Fair organizers all around the state are wrapping up their homebrew competitions so get out to your local fair and find out your best competitors in your area.

After such great showings this year throughout the community, we can look ahead to another great summer next year. Every great event needs helpers and organizers. Beerstock 5060 is looking for some new organizers and a new location (interested in helping? Contact the Joys).

Next year's NHC will be down in San Diego and we'll be looking to make a showing down there. Start planning ahead and get involved today. Talk with your
